

JAY LEVESQUE

Director, Alternative Investment Research

Jay Levesque is director, alternative investment research at Laird Norton Wealth Management (LNWM). A key member of LNWM's Investment Strategy and Research team, Jay's responsibilities include the sourcing, evaluation, and monitoring of managers applying alternative asset strategies across the capital markets spectrum. He is also actively involved in shaping LNWM's investment strategy, asset allocation, risk management and investment selection processes.

Prior to joining Laird Norton Wealth Management, Jay was director, investment research at Filament LLC, a wealth advisory firm that merged with LNWM in December 2020. Before Filament, Jay was an associate on the alternative investments team at J.P. Morgan Private Bank in New York City, where he focused on hedge fund due diligence. Jay has B.S. degrees (magna cum laude) in Finance and Mathematical Sciences from Oregon State University and is a Chartered Financial Analyst®. He is president of the Seattle Alternative Investment Association and a member of the Oregon State University College of Business Finance Circle.
